Republican Nominations

FOR PRESIDENT,

ULYSSES S. GRANT.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,

SCHUYLER COLFAX.

VERMONT.

For Electors at Large—GEORGE W. GRANTLEY, of Vergennes; H. FAIRBANKS, of St. Johnsbury.
For Elector—Third District—GEORGE WILKINS, of Stowe.

Ho! for Plattsburgh.

The Republicans of Clinton County N. Y. are arranging for a political meeting at Plattsburgh on the 7th of October next. The press of the valley of Lake Champlain has already announced that Vermont is to be represented there, by the true and faithful in large numbers. It is well understood, we suppose, that the State of New York is reckoned upon by the Democrats, for her full electoral vote in favor of Seymour and Blair, while the Republicans consider the result as extremely doubtful. In order to make the result for the Democracy more doubtful, and to insure the State vote for Grant and Colfax, the Republicans have a work to do between this time and November. The Republicans of St. Albans and Franklin County Vermont, can now lend their neighbors across the Lake helping a hand, as the opportunity is presented!

Vermont may be considered as safe for Grant and Colfax in November, and there is little more remaining for us to do here, than to deposit our votes. The local issues and divided notions which manifested themselves so very unpleasantly at our September election, will not appear in our national ballot in November. In view of this fact, we are in duty bound to render such aid as may be necessary to the Republicans in adjoining and doubtful States. Ours is a progressive party, a positive party, and if you will so have it a "Radical party" so far as radicalism is right. The Republicans have always been compelled to work, and they can with satisfaction point to the many and magnificent results which have been accomplished through their organization, since the party became organized. The people saw the necessity for the party, there is equal necessity for its perpetuity. There will ever be work to be done, our antagonists will take every advantage of our lukewarmness and hesitancy, we should not hesitate.

We have a political organization in St. Albans known as the "Grant Club" or at least history so records the fact. This is the nucleus around which we should naturally suppose the supporters of Grant and Colfax would gather, but so far, we have been unable to discover any signs of vitality.

What is the object or the use of the thing if it is not to move forward in these matters. The President of the Club, in one of his jolly speeches, recently remarked that it had been instrumental in doing no injury. This is too true, and he might have added also, that it had done no good. If the thing lives we should like to discover some signs of its life; if it is still-born, why should it have been given a name?

Now we do think, after all, that the Club might be made the means of doing some good hereafter, and should lead off in this Republican excursion to Plattsburgh. The services of the Brigade Band should be secured at an early day to accompany the excursion, with a request that they learn to play "Rally Round the Flag." They may know how already, but if so we have never heard them. If we are to be disappointed in our expectations of the Grant Club, let us have timely notice, that we may unite ourselves to some school-boys debating club, that has not made an excursion this season and might be induced to go to Plattsburgh. The Ladies' Sewing Circles in the village, we believe, made no excursions this season, and perhaps, as a last resort, they might be induced to go, it being leap year.

But, candidly, we think the Republicans of St. Albans and vicinity should attend the Grand Rally at Plattsburgh, and lend their influence to the propagation of Republican ideas over the Lake. We believe that a great many of our own way of thinking, will be there from St. Albans, even though each one travels on his own hook; how much better it would be if a little organized effort could be put forth and take the Band along. We have no doubt the "River Queen" could be chartered for half fare. Shall we go?

FULTON MARKET.—Just received, a nice lot Dried Beef, Sugar Cured Hams, Bologna Sausage, Sweet Potatoes, Tomatoes, Peas, Peaches, Water Melons, and Musk Melons. dtd-94.

Sir John Franklin's Expedition.

IMPORTANT DISCOVERIES.

The New York Herald prints some interesting information in relation to the expedition of Captain Hall in search of traces of Sir John Franklin. The information is furnished by Dr. Gould of Dublin, who has been during the past two years in the Polar regions:

Dr. Gould arrived at New London, Conn., a few days since, on board a whaling ship, from Cumberland Inlet, and states that in August, 1867, he spent some time with Mr. Hall, who was then at Repulse Bay. Mr. Hall has traced the fate directly of two of the last survivors of Sir John Franklin's party, and has obtained valuable information regarding the relics and some records reported by the natives to have been left by the lost expedition in King William's Land. Captain Hall learned from some of the Esquimaux, in 1863, about two years prior to that time Captain Crozier and one of the Franklin crew had died in the neighborhood of Southampton Island, while endeavoring to make their way to that place, in the belief that they would be there able to meet a whaler to convey them back to England, or, in fact anywhere, to escape from their Arctic prison.

Capt. Hall is confident of the identity of Captain Crozier with one of the men so described to have perished, as the natives not only gave Captain Crozier's name, but were in possession of certain articles that belonged to him and to his companion. Mr. Hall obtained from these Esquimaux Capt. Crozier's watch, a gold carmonometer, made by Arnold & Dent of London, besides some small articles of silver, and trinkets belonging to their outfit. These relics Mr. Hall now holds, and they have been seen and named by Dr. Gould. Capt. Crozier's companion, who died with him, is believed to have been a steward of either the Erebus or Terror, as the natives say he was a server of food, but could not recollect his name.

The natives also state that they have among them, near Southampton Island, a piece of gold lace and a piece of gold button which belonged to Capt. Crozier, and is believed to have formed part of one of his epaulettes. They also stated that a number of others had started with Capt. Crozier from a place very north to reach Southampton Inlet, but had perished one by one on the way. They had been passed from one band of Esquimaux to the other, and when Capt. Crozier had passed through two tribes the natives say all further traces were lost; but Capt. Hall himself traced the remainder. Capt. Hall also says: "The opinion most entertained is, that the natives killed them." They say themselves there was no difficulty in Capt. Crozier getting through, because he was accompanied among the natives a first-rate hunter for that country and could at all times keep himself in food.

The records which Captain Hall hopes to be able to secure are in King William's Land, and considerable difficulty is anticipated in the effort to reach them. According to native information the last six survivors built a cairn or rude vault of stones on the rocks, and deposited within it some documents and such articles as they had no further use for, or would have been an encumbrance on their journey. For some time past King William and his tribe have been hostile towards the native followers of King Albert, who inhabit the region about Repulse Bay, where Mr. Hall was quartered, and would allow no incursions into their country. The place where this cairn is described to be situated is about four hundred and fifty miles northward from Repulse Bay; and in order to reach it Captain Hall has formed an alliance with Albert and his people, and together with his own escort of Esquimaux, was preparing an expedition of about twenty persons to march in quest of the records.

It was Mr. Hall's intention to start in February or March of this year, and he had already accumulated supplies of provisions and other necessaries for the purpose. His force will consist of five Esquimaux besides himself, and the remainder would be composed of Alfred's men. Of the whites accompanying him two were Irishmen, one German, one Englishman and one Swede, all of whom were recruited by him from the crew of the Pioneer, which was wrecked in the summer of 1867 at King's Cape. These men are all armed with revolvers and shot guns, and it was mainly through reliance on the Europeans and their weapons that the Albert men were induced to participate in the incursion. Alone they would be unable to cope with King William's forces, who number about two hundred, and could be assembled in a month.

Captain Hall would offer no molestation to King William's people, but if opposed would give them battle if necessary, as he was determined to obtain the records of the last explorers if possible. He would be accompanied also by "Joe" and "Hannah," the two Esquimaux or Esquimaux who, it will be remembered, were a few years ago educated in this country and exhibited in this city. "Joe" and "Hannah" are man and wife, and now form part of Capt. Hall's retinue or household, affording him valuable assistance through their knowledge of the English language. In communicating with the various tribes of natives, with whose dialects and peculiarities they are familiar. The entire of the expedition, would have to be traversed on sledges drawn by dogs, of which useful motive-power Mr. Hall has an abundant stock.

It was Mr. Hall's determination, if successful in finding the cairn, and if no unforeseen circumstances or obstacles intervened, to press still further forward, and if possible reach the open Polar Sea, and perhaps return by way of Behring Strait. If impeded he expected to return from his expedition to King William's Land about September of 1868, and take up his quarters for winter at Repulse Bay. Last year he wintered in this locality, and at the time Dr. Gould saw him in 66 degrees 25 minutes North latitude, and longitude 81 degrees 6 minutes West.

PERUVIAN SYRUP.—This valuable medicine has been silently making its way into public favor by the numerous remarkable cures it has performed. Its singular efficacy is owing to the protoxide of iron, which remains unchanged in the preparation, and is the only form in which this vital element of healthy blood can be supplied.

Political.

A vote was taken on the westward bound train from Albany, resulting:—Grant, 85; Seymour, 55. The canvasser asked one gentleman how he voted. "I am a Seymour man," he replied; it was Seymour himself.

Gen. A. R. Scott, Governor of South Carolina, had a singular experience, for in the course of three years he was a prisoner, a victor, and a Governor in the same State.

The Springfield Republican says: In the Congressional Districts of Massachusetts, Messrs. Davis, Banks, Boutwell, Hooper, Twitchell, and Ames will be renominated without opposition. Mr. Washburn also is pretty sure of the nomination, and so, we fear, is Gen. Butler. Mr. Buffinton is likely to be nominated for the First District, though the friends of Wm. T. Davis do not give up hope. In the Worcester District, the choice lies between Mr. Bird and Mr. G. F. Hoar. There is some talk of running Mr. Dana against Butler in the Essex District, but that excellent proposal is made rather late in the campaign, and it is doubtful if Mr. Dana will consent to stand. The Convention is called at Salem on the 28th inst.

The Philadelphia North American says:

"If there is always 'strength in union' then the Union Democrats are beyond Achilles. They unite more contradictions and oppositions, so far as elements naturally hostile can be fused, than history is able to parallel. They unite a very few hard money Democrats and more paper currency advocates. They unite men of peace and pure revolutionists. They unite a small sprinkling of war Democrats to all the rebels and the whole copperhead following. They unite republicans and a corporal's guard of honest men; those who hate the negro with the bitterness of death, and those who have a selfish love for him, and an occasional negro who is fond of barbaque and temporary distinction. Thus there is a kind of union."

We clip the following from the New York Tribune:

A correspondent of a Chicago newspaper has had a conversation with an "old Jackson Democrat," who knows Frank Blair like a book. He says:—"Frank is a real crit. He was always fighting at school. He believed in the code, sir, so did the old man stand by the code; they were all on the code. They were all good shots, and proportionately proud of their honors." Here he was asked if Frank was equal to his brother Montgomery in ability. "Smarter, sir; not so good natured, but more popular. He'll fight quicker. Bless you! that Frank would make no bones in cleaning out the whole Congress—boss, foot, and artillery. He's like the old man—he's a great reformer!" No wonder Wade Hampton and N. B. Forrest went into ecstasies over this "great reformer's" nomination.

Corry O'Leary has heard all about those "immense Rebel gains in Maine." He has received the following letter:

SQUENK, ME.
To C. G. Leary, Esq.

The election in the Town has gone just as we expected. The Republicans have carried the Town by an increased majority, but the heaviest proportionate gains have been on the Democratic side, as you will see by the figures:

	1867.	1868.
Republican vote	50	60
Democratic vote	1	1
Totals	51	62

The Democratic gain is 100 per cent., while the Republican gain is only 20 per cent. At this rate the redemption of Maine is only a question of time.

Yours,
HUGH B. BLADE.

The Philadelphia Press thus speaks of Thaddeus Stevens' successor: "Col. Dickey is the son of the Hon. John Dickey, who served in two Congresses as a Representative for the Beaver District, and died in 1853. He went to Lancaster in 1845, and began the study of law in the office of Thaddeus Stevens. When admitted to the bar, he entered at once into a lucrative practice, which his ability and perseverance enabled him to constantly increase. A few years ago, he served a term as District Attorney for the County. He is about 43 years of age, a firm Radical, a forcible speaker, and as he is the executor of the will of the late Mr. Stevens, so now the action of the Republican party makes him his political executor. The duty could not have been imposed upon one who knows it more thoroughly, and who will perform it more effectually."

The Philadelphia Press says: "Washington fought and won the battles of the Revolution and was made President. Jackson fought and won the battles of the second war of Independence, and was made President. Taylor fought and won our battles in the war with Mexico, and was made President. Grant fought and won our battles in the overthrow of the slaveholders' Rebellion, and why should he be made an exception to the rule? He won't be."

Missisquoi Springs.

ESSEXBURG, Aug. 29, 1868.
For a long time I had been afflicted with a very serious disease of the Kidneys. I was not able to turn over in bed without help, and it was thought by all my friends that I never should recover. All medical treatment had been without effect. The disease was complicated by a scrofulous affection. I tried every remedy, used the water of Mineral Springs elsewhere without avail. The Missisquoi Spring water was tried by me in 1865, and I continued its use for several months, till I entirely recovered and am now in better health than ever before. I consider this water a specific for Kidney and Scrofulous complaints. It has been so in my case.

VALLEY HOUSE.

Franklin Co., Vt., Aug. 17, '68.
I have been afflicted with Catarrh for three or four years. In February last I had it very severely. In April commenced the use of the Missisquoi water. The discharge was very heavy and troublesome, but continued to lessen until today I am entirely well. The many remedies I had taken under the best medical advice had proved unsavailing, and I owe it to others similarly afflicted, to state that the Missisquoi water has been, in my case, the one only effective means of cure.

The American Cooking Stove.

ANOTHER PATENT SUIT.—We understand Messrs. Shear, Packard & Co. have been compelled to commence a suit against Hunt & Miller, of Hudson, for infringing the Patent on the Ash Sifter in the American Cooking Stove. This is the fifth suit they have been compelled to bring against different parties on this score. The four previous suits have resulted favorably for S. P. & Co., and they are determined to follow up all cases of infringement until others cease from appropriating their improvements. Albany Evening Journal, July 26th, 1868.

All persons are cautioned against selling or using Stoves with a Shaking Ash Sifter in the hearth, or under the grate, as this improvement is fully secured to us by five different Patents, and all persons selling or using Stoves with this improvement, will be liable to prosecution for infringement, as we have granted no license to other parties to make or sell this improvement and all infringements will be promptly prosecuted.

ADDRESS

To the Nervous &amp; Debilitated.

WHOSE sufferings have been protracted, and who are unable to pursue their usual course of life, and who are in need of prompt treatment to render existence desirable. If you are suffering or have suffered from involuntary discharges, what effect does it produce upon your general health? Do you feel weak, debilitated, easily tired? Do you feel that you are losing the vitality of the heart? Does your liver, or urinary organs, or your kidneys, frequently get out of order? Is your urine sometimes thick, milky, or bloody, or is itropy on settling? Or does a thick sediment rise on the bottom of the glass? Or is a sediment at the bottom after it has stood awhile? Do you have spells of short breathing or dyspnea? Are your bowels constipated? Do you have spells of fainting, or rushes of blood to the head? Is your memory impaired? Is your mind constantly dwelling upon this subject? Do you feel listless, restless, tired, tired of company, of life? Do you wish to be left alone, to get away from everybody? Does any little thing make you start or jump? Is your sleep broken, or restless? Is the lustre of your eye as brilliant? The bloom on your cheek as bright? Do you enjoy yourself in society as well? Do you pursue your business with the same energy? Do you feel as much confidence in yourself? Are your spirits dull and sinking, so that you feel melancholy? Do you not lay to your liver or dyspepsia? Have you restless nights? Your back weak, your knees weak, and have but little appetite, and you attribute this to dyspepsia or liver complaint.

Now, reader, sexual abuse, venereal diseases badly cured, and sexual excesses, are all capable of producing a weakness of the generative organs. The organs of generation, when in perfect health, make the man. Did you ever think that those hard, debilitated, nervous, feverish, successful business men are always those whose generative organs are in perfect health? You never hear such men complain of being melancholy, or nervousness, or palpitation of the heart. They are never afraid they cannot succeed in business; they don't become sad and discouraged; they are always polite and pleasant in the company of ladies, and look you and them right in the face—none of your downcast looks or any other meanness about them. I do not mean those men who, by running to excess, these will not only ruin their constitutions, but also those they do business with or for.

How many men, from badly cured diseases, from the effects of self-abuse and excesses, have brought about that state of weakness in those organs that has reduced the general system so much as to induce almost every other disease—lunacy, insanity, paralysis, spinal affections, suicide, impotence, and finally, death.

Diseases of these organs require the use of a BURETTE, HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT. BURETTE is the great principle, and is a certain cure for diseases of the Kidneys, Gravel, Dropsy, Organic Weakness, Female Complaints, General Debility, and all diseases of the Urinary Organs, whether existing in Male or Female, from whatever cause originating, and of matter of how long standing.

If no treatment is submitted to, Consumption or Insanity may ensue. Our flesh and blood are supported from these sources, and the health and happiness, and that of posterity, depends upon prompt use of a reliable remedy.

Helmbold's Extra Extract, established upwards of 18 years, prepared by H. T. HELMBOLD, Druggist, 594 New York, and 104 South 10th Street, Philadelphia, Pa. Price—$1.25 per bottle, or 6 bottles for $6.50, delivered to any address. Sold by all Druggists everywhere.

None are genuine unless done up in steel engraved wrapper, with fac-simile of my Chemical Warehouse, and signed
H. T. HELMBOLD.

Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.

Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Asthma, Croup, Whooping Cough, Quinsy, and the numerous as well as dangerous diseases of the Throat, Chest, and Lungs, prevail in our changeable climate at all seasons of the year; few are fortunate enough to escape their baneful influence. How important then to have at hand a certain antidote to all these complaints. Experience proves that this exists in Wistar's Balsam to an extent not found in any other remedy; however severe the suffering, the application of this soothing healing and wonderful Balsam at once vanquishes the disease and restores the sufferer to wonted health.

TWENTY YEARS' EXPERIENCE.
MONKTON, Vt., June 28, 1860.

Messrs. S. W. FOWLE & Co., Boston.
Gentlemen:—Having for twenty years past been in the habit of using Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, in cases of Coughs, Colds, and Pulmonary Affections, I can testify to its great merits with the utmost confidence. I believe it to be the best medicine for these complaints ever used, and have no doubt that the use of it has at three several times saved me from Consumption, besides many times in later years, affording immediate relief in less severe attacks. I am 78 years of age, and for many years have been a subject for pulmonary disease, but by the use of this excellent remedy I keep myself quite comfortable. I can hardly find language to express the exalted opinion I have of the Balsam, and recommend its use to all as the best remedy that can be used.
